

Plant Breeders' Rights Fast Facts

Understanding the changes and your obligations

As of February 27, 2015, all new PBR-protected varieties will be protected under the new legislation that conforms to the UPOV 1991 convention, bringing Canada in line with the rest of the world, and opening opportunities for increased investment to make new varieties available to Canadian farmers. It brings opportunity, but it also brings new obligations for the value chain.

Are all varieties protected under the same Plant Breeders' Rights (PBR) Act?

As of February 27, 2015, all new varieties submitted for PBR are protected under the new legislation. These varieties carry the PBR 91 symbol.

All varieties granted protection under the PBR prior to February 27, 2015 continue under the original Act. These varieties carry the original PBR symbol.

Breeders' rights

What are breeders' rights?

Breeders' rights are now expanded under the new PBR Act. Authorization from the breeder is required to produce, reproduce, sell, clean/condition, stock, import or export seed of PBR-protected varieties.

Authorization from the breeder is required to sell, or produce for sale, seed of PBR-protected varieties.

Can breeders be compensated on harvested grain?

Yes, if seed was obtained and used illegally or without the authorization of the breeder, the breeder can choose to seek compensation, including for lost royalty revenue; lost markets; and for court costs; on delivered grain produced from that seed.

No
